Capital Firm Is Bidder For New District Hospital

Supervisor Secures Aid To Assure Early Building

With a bid of $347,841, Schreck and Sons of Sacramento last Friday submitted the lowest bid for construction of the new Tahoe Forest Hospital.

While this sum is far in excess of the original plans, due primarily to the increase in costs of materials, C. R. Heller, president of the board of directors, said efforts are being made to make it possible to proceed without too much delay on the building.

Supervisor H. G. Loehr reported to Heller that he had been successful in securing $20,000 from the so-called Chapter 20 fund and with this amount matched by the district and then by state and federal agencies, work may be started in the near future. It is also possible that some changes may be made in types of materials and other requirements to bring the original bid down somewhat.

Other bids submitted were from Swinerton and Walberg for $349,300 and Gardner Company, $385,546.

Board members are continuing to study ways and means to start work as soon as possible.

Utility District Offers To Again Haul Garbage

With bids being received until 3 p.m. September 14 by the Truckee Sanitary District for a contract to haul garbage and thus relieve the district of the current responsibility, the Truckee Public Utility District has offered to take over the work.

Once before the utility district took over the garbage detail and operated it for about a year before the sanitary district requested that it be returned.

The letter from the utility district is self explanatory:

"We note that the Truckee Sanitary District is asking for bids for the private handling of garbage collection within the boundaries of the sanitary district.

"It is the belief of the directors and officers of the Truckee Public Utility District that the best interests of the people of the area is served by such a service being rendered by a public agency. We, therefore, propose that the Truckee Public Utility District take over the garbage collection within the boundaries of the district as provided under the laws of the utility district.

"We suggest for your consideration that the Truckee Public Utility District purchase from the Truckee Sanitary District the land now used for a garbage dump at the price originally paid for the same and also the truck chassis used by the Truckee Sanitary District for garbage collection for the sum now owed on the same."

SNAKE ATTACHED TO TROUSERS AS MAN FIGHTS FIRE

Harry Parsons, horse patrolman with the Tahoe National Forest at Brockway Summit, had a narrow escape Friday when a rattlesnake struck at him and attached its fangs in the leg of his trousers while Parsons was fighting the fire near the Flycasters Club. The snake was a black variety and about three feet in length.

Fire Control Assistant William Curran said the small area of rocks is one of two isolated spots in this entire area where rattlers are known to exist.

More Than 500 Enroll In Unified School District

Truckee Elementary Is Largest With Total Of 186

With an increase shown in nearly every class over the figures for last year, the five schools in the Tahoe Truckee Unified School District opened Tuesday for the fall semester.

Figures for the opening day, compiled by Superintendent E. V. O'Rourke, showed more than 500 children enrolled in the schools with the Truckee elementary school, with a total of 186, as compared with 164 last year, being the largest of the five.

The Kings Beach school registered 82 this year as compared to 87 for 1949 and a drop of from 105 last year to 94 this year was reported at the Tahoe Lake school at Tahoe City. The Donner Trail school gained from 41 to 47, the report shows.

The high school registered 93 this year, according to C. P. King, the principal. That represents 25 freshmen, 35 sophomores, 18 juniors and 15 seniors.

The elementary school here has 30 in the first grade, 35 in the second, 29 in the third, 26 in the fourth, 40 in the fifth and sixth and 25 in the seventh and eighth, Principal Arthur Eve reported.

JOERGER AGREES TO OPEN LAND FOR THREE DAYS

Providing hunters observe the no trespassing signs which will be posted over nearly 10,000 acres of land controlled and owned by J. E. Joerger, local stockman, during the early weeks of the deer hunting season, the land will be opened during the last three days of the season, Joerger announced.

The posting was found necessary, the owner said, after several head of valuable cattle have been killed each year recently and after a number of fires have been started by careless hunters.

The land, located south of the Truckee River and extending over the Martis area, is one of the favorite hunting grounds each year for scores of nimrods but the abuses have continued to gain and the owner, in self defense, reluctantly posted the area.

"It is not our intention to be tough or arbitrary," Joerger said. "We took the action only as a last resort when persuasion and talk failed. If we can have the cooperation of the hunters we will open the lands October 13, 14 and 15."

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

We are not going to suggest that the powder dry forests be closed to hunters until after a storm minimizes the danger of a major conflagration, since we are confident the state and forest officials will do what is best and have a far greater knowledge of the situation than we do. However, we are going to urge that extreme caution be used by those entering the woods for any reason. Several recent forest fires throughout the area, all of them costly and dangerous, have given proof of the conditions of the trees and brush after one of the most protracted hot and dry seasons in the memory of the old timers. Trees are so dry they practically explode in a fire and the smallest spark is capable of starting a roaring inferno which, even without wind, spreads so far that it taxes men and equipment to keep pace with it. Most of us living within the forest recognize the danger and are careful, but the city dweller who visits the woods only for the purpose of killing a deer and has no other particular interest in the forests, is not always as careful. We believe the heaviest prescribed punishment for violating fire rules is too light but we hope no violator escapes the maximum it apprehended.

Now that schools have opened for the fall term, the traffic hazards are increased, especially in the vicinity of the schools. Most drivers recognize the danger but there are others who apparently delight in speeding by school grounds. May we suggest that the officers check occasionally on this situation and bring an end to this danger?

Crash Fatal To Woman; Others Hurt In Mishaps

Driver Avoids Boy But Hits Tree Near Tahoe

One woman was fatally injured and six others hurt in automobile accidents in this district over the past week, the California Highway Patrol reports.

Mrs. Ina McClellan, 50, San Francisco, died at a Reno hospital following a crash near Tahoe City Sunday evening when a car driven by Albert Bessure ran off the road into a tree when the driver attempted to avoid striking a boy riding a bicycle.

Another woman, Mrs. Jewell Terry, 41, Oakland, suffered serious injuries when a car driven by Edwin Ferree, 23, Oakland, crashed into a tree along Donner Lake Saturday morning at 5:00 o'clock. Patrolman William Gautsche said the driver apparently fell asleep. Injured in the same crash was Miss Dorothy Terry, 19, and the driver, who was cited for driving without due caution.

Mrs. Hazel Rodems, Belmont, was taken to a Reno hospital in a serious condition and her husband, John, was less seriously hurt when the Rodems car and one driven by Charles Griffiths, 69, Sacramento, hit headon near Donner Summit on Friday night. Griffiths was not badly injured. Mrs. Rodems was cited for speeding and making a bad pass by Patrolman Gautsche.

The possibility that money may yet be obtained to erect check dams is still apparent and the meeting will determine to what extent state help may be had.

Everyone interested in the project and conservation of the fish and game in this district is urged to attend this important session. John Ciardella, club president, will be in charge.

Weekend Travel Far In Excess Of 1949 Labor Day

The Labor Day weekend saw another local traffic record go by the board at the state's quarantine station near here.

W. C. Gage, inspector in charge, reports that for the three days, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, this year 8120 cars, 231 trucks and 87 stages with a total of 12,819 passengers were checked into the state. This compares with 6403 cars, 138 trucks, 95 stages and a total of 18,709 passengers for the same period in 1949.

The count does not include east bound vehicles nor local cars and trucks.

SURVEY CREW TO STUDY EMIGRANT TRAIL FOR PARK

A survey crew under the direction of Bert Wiley, field man for the state division of beaches and parks, is starting a survey of the old Emigrant Trail over Donner Summit as the first step in a proposal to take that area into the state park system.

James Sherritt of Soda Springs, one of the active proponents of the plan, said he had received word from Assemblyman Francis Lindsay to the effect that an appropriation of $8,000 was secured to make a complete survey of the proposed park and that the survey will be completed as soon as possible.

In the meantime, a joint committee from the various service clubs here and at Colfax, Nevada City and Grass Valley is standing by under the leadership of Sherritt to lend any assistance.

Forest Fires In Truckee District Keep Crew Busy

Dwellings Threatened In Gateway District By Flames

Forest fires which have harrassed forest service officials during the past week continue to leave a pall of smoke over Truckee as a reminder of the tinder dry condition of the forests and brush.

Fire Control Assistant William F. Curran reports there have been 16 fires in the Truckee district this season, five from lightning and 11 man caused.

The most threatening fire occurred Friday afternoon when flames for a time threatened the Gateway Park and Meadow Park residential areas a mile west of here. The 100 or more residents of the area were prepared to evacuate before the flames, which came to within a quarter of a mile from the nearest homes, were controlled.

One of Several

The fire was one of three or more which started within a period of two hours and, according to Forest Ranger E. E. Boehm, probably resulted from faulty equipment on a freight train, since all started near the tracks.

The fire was discovered by employees at George Kaspian's Truckee Lumber mill and a bulldozer and 25 men from there were dispatched immediately to the scene at Rocky Point. A second bulldozer from Crandall Brothers mill joined the fight and officials credited the prompt and efficient work of this equipment and men with bringing the blaze to a halt before serious damage was caused. Residents of the area and local volunteers were kept busy wetting down roofs as spot fires came within a short distance of the dwellings, business block and Gateway Motel.

Divide Crews

Boehm directed the fighting in the area while Curran was direrting 150 men and equipment near the Flycasters Club where 85 acres were burned over at the same time. The Sierra Pacific Power Company just managed to save equipment which had been rushed to the Flycasters fire and which was salvaged minutes before the flames swept over the area.

While the two fires were burning, a third was being fought near the state line by men from the Toiyabe National Forest with other smaller fires at Farad and Verdi along the tracks of the Southern Pacific.

A lightning storm on Monday started an incipient fire two miles north of Boca dam, Curran reported, and two acres were burned over.

Dog Valley Fire

More than 300 acres were burned in the Crystal Peak area on the Dog Valley road north of Verdi, this fire being caused by lightning. It was being fought yesterday by nearly 200 men and seven bulldozers.

Credit for checking the local fires was given to local volunteers and equipment which were rushed to the scene immediately after the danger was announced.

Boehm warns that there is a terrific fire hazard existing and urges everyone to be more than cautious.

North Tahoe

by T. BURROUGHS

Heavy and depressing hangs the smoke screen, created in some instances by fires caused by careless motorists, over our beautiful Lake Tahoe. Dipping deep down in among our tall and stately trees, the grey and smelly haze is a grim reminder of the thoughtlessness of a lot of smokers. Without thinking, a smoker tosses a still lighted match or cigarette stub from his car window, going serenely on his way while his action blackens acre after acre of God's green earth, damaging property, spoiling the beauty of a forest, destroying timber, bringing grief to his fellow man. How is this to be stopped?

We've had a wonderful season. Over this Labor Day holiday many weekend vacationists were obliged to sleep out because of the unusually large number of persons leaving the more crowded areas for a day or two in the wilds before settling down to another work session. Accommodations were, in many cases, loaded to an uncomfortable capacity. Still, all could not be taken care of. This speaks well for our vacation land. Our Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce can be given credit for considerable and splendid advertising. As the season draws to a close, we can be thankful for the perfectly glorious weather awarded us these past two months; for the better places and accommodations gracing our end of the lake; for added bits of improvement here and there that will attract the passer by; for our North Tahoe Public Utility District which, by the way, is in action.

There's shooting up on the hill at the Lake Tahoe Gun Club shoot grounds. The three-day shoot this next weekend is scheduled to bring a lot of visitors to our end of Tahoe.

Clarice Astle called me to say that she and Phyllis would be in Sacramento this winter where Clarice will be employed and Phyllis will go to school.

The Kings Beach laundromat will soon be in operation again. Despair not, ye ladies, who had hoped for its availabiliy this summer. It will be a better laundromat for its short closing.

Miss Lucille Hallenbeck, who taught in the Kings Beach school last year, was up for the holidays as a guest in the A. E. Abbott home.

Bob and Dorothy Misner of San Bernardino stopped in to say hello to The Burroughs during their short vacation on the south end of the lake. Their four year old son, Harvey, a North Tahoe-ite, was with them.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Murray celebrated their 29th wedding anniversary on September 3 with a trip to San Francisco after which they are spending a couple of weeks at their home and with friends in Merced.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickow have sold their property in Kings Beach and left on Tuesday for the bay area. From there, they will continue on to New York for a visit with his people. Before settling down again they expect to also visit Mrs. Dickow's people in Illinois, see New Orleans and a lot of Florida.

Jewelry valued at $2200, described as a gift from Mrs. John W. Mackay, wife of the late Comstock mining figure, is missing from the Lake Tahoe home of Mrs. Robert Z. Hawkins. Her husband reported the missing jewelry consists of a pair of diamond and ruby eardrops, a brooch containinp diamonds and emerald, and rubies shaped like a Christmas tree. Hawkins told officers he has no idea whether the jewelry was lost or stolen.

Kings Beach residents who also are in the North Tahoe Public Utility District and the Tahoe Forest Hospital District, will pay the highest tax rate in Placer County, according to Wm. R. Stephens, county auditor. The rate will be $6.57 per $100 of assessed valuation. The city of Roseville comes close with $6.26. Alta is low with $3.40. The basic county rate is $1.88.

Deer Hunters ATTENTION

If hunters will conform with the trespass rules during the early part of the deer hunting season on the property we have posted, we will open our lands to hunters during the last three days of the season — October 13, 14 and 15.

We posted the property only to protect our stock and not in a spirit of unfairness nor to be malicious.

We ask your co-operation

SWANEE'S TAHOE LETTER

Tahoe City, September 4

Dear Tahoeites:

The three-day holiday exodus has started as cars from just about every state in the Union pass our Chamber of Commerce door this morning, on their way home. A steady stream has poured into the area since Friday and yet so far as I can learn only two accidents have occurred in this district. It seems to me this is a commendable record for safety, considering the enormous volume of automobiles involved. Not that there shouldn't have been more wrecks according to the way many motorists speed along the stretch of highway within our ken where frequently clashes are avoided by mere inches.

Daughter Maaie, her son Billy and myself spent a marvelous evening Saturday last as guests of the Pineland Tract residents who put on a community pot-luck dinner in the outdoor Bowl which was constructed by Bert Anderson, tract contractor, who has donated its use free to the Pineland community. Tasty dishes of every description filled the long table set up before the log fire, and close to 200 persons lined up to participate in the feast. Following the repast, an impromptu entertainment began which lasted for several hours. Vocalists included Miss Jean Lanphier, Mrs. Frances Carlson, Peggy Hopkins of San Francisco, Mrs. Kishbaugh, Frances Anderson, Denis Sach, Bert Anderson and Phil Olander. Piano solos were offered by Norman Dewhurst and Denis Sach. Mrs. Charles Beardsley, who accompanied the singers during the entire evening, gave an esyecially pleasing performance despite the fact that she had to read her music a distance of about 100 feet from the floodlights which lighted the bowl. Mrs. B. majored in music at College of the Pacific and later transferred to University of Nevada, where she continued her studies under a private tutor.

Mrs. Frances Carlson, whose lovely clear soprano voice has graced every program staged by the local group each Saturday evening since July, has just returned from a visit in Washington, where she sang for members of the O.R. Club in conference at Tacoma. She has traveled over the United States in concert tours and sang in the capitals of Europe for over a year, and on the radio. She is also well known on the San Francisco peninsula where she is frequently heard in concert.

Peggy Hopkins is a voice instructor in San Francisco.

Charles Beardsley, witty master of ceremonies, has been the leading inspiration at the Pineland Bowl all summer and to him and his good wife go much of the credit for the group's outstanding social calendar. Mr. B. formerly made his living in the field of music, having been head of the music department for two years at the Piedmont high school. He and his family are better known perhaps in Elko, Nevada, where he taught for many years and where he organized championship bands and choruses. The Beardsleys spend their winters in Oakland where he conducts a real estate business and where he has organized a unique adult chorus of brokers and real estate salesmen. This group is frequently invited to sing at national conventions and only this summer was invited to sing at the New York City conclave.

Next year Pineland Bowl's popularity should double when light opera is added to the Saturday night programs which are offered to the public free of charge. Among those we met Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. James and son David, all of Richmond and Pineland. The James, who have visited at the Warner summer home here three times this year, now have purchased a lot in Pineland and will build their own home. Mrs. Warner was glad to be home again after a month's visit at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, with her mother, brother and sisters.

No further news has developed regarding our boys in service but from Denis Sach, local painting contractor, I learned Saturday night that his elder son, PFC Denis Sach, is permanently "frozen" in his present assignment with the Air Force at Bolling Field, Washington, D. C. With two other boys, 19 year old Denis is in charge of the communications hut at the big air base.

Our good neighbors across the street from us on Fairway Drive, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Heaney, left on Monday for their San Francisco home after several weeks visit at their Tahoe City place.

Here for several weeks vacation with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jay M. Shontz, are Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Brodehl. Mrs. Brodehl phoned me on Sunday and said they were so thrilled to be back in "God's country" where it was cool enough to enjoy life. At their Lodi home, she said, they have to keep two electric fans going day and night, and then the heat was still intense.

Mrs. Irene Catterlin of Oakland spent the three day holiday with the Rob Watsons at their mill beyond Lake Forest. While here, she visited her grandchildren at Carson City and enjoyed visiting old acquaintances. She left for home on Monday. Before departing Tahoe City, Mrs. Catterlin stopped at our office at the wye to say howdy and relayed the best wishes of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Halvorson of Turlock, former Tahoe City residents, and those of Mrs. Maude Stanley, another former Tahoeite whose husband was employed for years by the highway department, to their many old neighbors and friends still at the lare.

My neighbors, the Charles B. Crosses, are now grandparents. Their son Chal's wife gave birth to a son in a Reno hospital on August 15. Haven't heard yet what the young man will be called as the Cross family is out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Anderson of Tahoe Cedars are looking forward to a visit with their son, Richard, who was slated to return to his new home and waiting wife at Menlo Park some time in September. He has been stationed for the past six months at Wake Island where he is chief port steward for Pan American Airways. The senior Andersons were surprised and delighted on Monday when their son Eugene, his wife and little daughter Gwen from Seattle walked in for a week's vacation with them. This is their first visit in two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hunting of Sacramento spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rosenblatt. Irwin Rosenblatt, their son, left last Sunday week for New York where he will attend school and live with an uncle.

George Mortimer of Sacramento is enjoying an extended vacation with his wife at their home in Tahoe Park. Recent guests of the Mortimers were Dr. and Mrs. C. Wenzler of Redwood City, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ralston, Charlie Woosner and daughter, Bethany, all of Fresno, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Cuneo of San Francisco.

Just back from two weeks of stiff training at Fort Lewis, Wash., is Bob Gilbert, new principal of the Tahoe Lake School. Bob is a first lieutenant in the 96th Division parachute infantry and during the last war had 22 jumps to his credit. He has been a member of the infantry for 12 years, off and on, with eight years credit toward retirement. Bob has been looking for living accomodations for his wife and little son, Robert Lund, who have been living with his parents, Col. and Mrs. Fred I. Gilbert of Oroville. Another local boy who has just returned from the same training stint is Jay Clark of Truckee.

Leave you all for another week but not before saying a word of regret at the death on Sunday night of one of the victims of the accident near the Milton summer home on Highway 89 Saturday at 12:45 p.m. She was identified in Dr. C. B. Pedersen's report as Mrs. Albert Beserra of San Francisco but the San Francisco press today gave her name as Ina MacClellen. Whether the couple was married recently and it was not generally known cannot be learned. Mr. Beserra, also taken by ambulance to Washoe Medical Center, while not believed seriously injured, is still undergoing medical treatment. Patrolman T. F. Sheehan said today the investigation is still being carried on regarding the cause of the accident. This is the first death resulting from an accident in this area for many months.

With the end of the holiday season here, resorts will soon be closing and then will come Indian summer—and what is jovially known as "caretakers season". Guns are being oiled and red hats and shirts dug up out of the mothballs in preparation for the opening of deer season. I only pray that local and visiting sportsmen will have a real heart this year and watch those lighted smokes and matches before casting them away into the shrubbery. Surrounding forests, with their tinder dry underbrush and carpet of pine needles, are a curse to the officers of the forest service, always on the alert. One look at the blackened stretch of timber along the Truckee should be a constant reminder that the price of safety is constant vigilance. Adios and good health, good cheer and good luck to all, as ever, Swanee.

SEEK TO CLARIFY STATUS OF POST MASTERS

Harry B. Mitchell, chairman of the U. S. civil service commission, has called upon the American public to recognize that postmasters are permanent officers under the civil service system and entitled to all the rights and privileges of the law.

Mitchell's statement was issued as a part of a nation-wide campaign launched by the National Association of Postmasters to educate the public as to the true status of postmasters in the civil service system. Too many people, the associations asserts, believe that postmasters are temporary political appointees and it is resulting in an incorrect attitude toward the postal service.

In a public statement, Mitchell said, "Every postmaster not only has to qualify for appointment through an examination given by the civil service commission but he must be among the three top eligibles. Like other federal workers, the postmaster serves without limitation on his term, subject only to the same competent handling of his term, subject only to the same competent handling of his office as required of all personnel.

"The country benefited when postmasters were placed under competitive civil service. The postmaster and his employees are the most important daily contact a citizen has with his government. I am glad to know that the National Association of Postmasters is launching a campaign to inform the American public as to the real facts. The United States Civil Service Commission is rarticularly gratified at the manner in which postmasters are performing their duties."

The association has established a national commitee to conduct the campaign. Top officials in government and in both major political parties have joined in expressing approval of the program the sole aim of which is to correct the oft-repeated statements that postmasters are serving only upon a temporary basis, whereas the law of the land has placed them as a vital part of the civil service system.

CAPITAL OBERVER COMPARES OATHS AT U. C., MARINES

by EARL G. WATERS

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— What is the oath which 39 members of the University of California staff find so objectionable?

At first, the regents of the university had proposed a "loyalty oath". While there was objection to the wording of that oath, a large percentage of university employees readily assented. But because of the objections based on academic freedom, this oath was modified. The wording of the oath contained in the contract which all but 39 have signed is as follows:

"Having taken the constitutional oath of office required of public officials of the state of California, I hereby formally acknowledge my acceptance of the position and salary named and also state that I am not a member of the Communist party or any other organization which advocates the overthrow of the government by force or violence and that I have no commitments in conflict with my responsibilities with respect to impartial scholarship and the free pursuit of truth.

"I understand that foregoing statement is a condition of said employment and a consideration of payment of said salary."

Now here is another type of oath:

"And I do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America; that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all enemies whomsoever with my life if need be; and that I will obey the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to the rules and articles of government of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps of the United States."

This is the oath to which every member of the United States Marine Corps subscribes and which many hundreds have carried out to the letter "from the halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli." From the fields of France in World War I, to the shores of Wake Island, Guadacanal, Tarawa, Iwo Jima and Okinawa in World War II, and to Korea in the present conflict.

Mrs. O'Rourke extended thanks to her co-workers whose efforts made the successful sale possible. They include Mrs. Pearl Snyder, Mrs. Louise Geier, Mrs. June Gowing and Mrs. Laura Wilson.

Members of club will hold a regular business meeting on Thursday, September 7, at 2 p.m. in the community hall.

GIRL TOURS WEST ON BICYCLE, IS TAHOE VISITOR

by SWANEE

TAHOE CITY— A young lady cyclist who is writing a book on her traveling experiences visited Lake Tahoe, and Tahoe City, last week. She is Miss Margaret M. Gall of Glendale, Calif. Miss Gall purchased her bike two years ago in June and since that time has joined the Wheelman's Club of Los Angeles and has covered 9,000 miles. She rode for two months in 1948, two months in 1949 and one month this year.

The comely brunette started her riding career upon advice of her physician, who found her to be anemic and underweight, urged her to combine sun bathing and bicycling. She accepted his advice and to date has gained ten pounnds, boasts a grand tan and feels right in the pink.

She carries her sleeping bag with her and other light commodities and sleeps out in the open whenever possible. One of her favorite "haunts" in seeking sleeping accomodations in strange cities and towns is the cemetery. She finds it peaceful and quiet and has never been disturbed while slumbering. Her strangest night was spent in a mortuary after she had been introduced to the coroner of Grangeville, Idaho. It was all he had to offer so she accepted with thanks.

She has never been insulted, robbed nor suffered the slightest indignity at the hands of the public in her wanderings and possesses an intense interest in people and their activities. She has interviewed farmers, ranchers, hotel managers, restaurant owners, coroners, fence builders, horse wrangers and every other worker who would talk to her. She has kept notes on her interviews and plans to incorporate them in her book.

Miss Gall started from Sun Valley, Idaho, where she was employed for a time at Challenger Inn. She made her way via bicycle to Glacier National Park on to the Canadian border, then to Montana, across Montana to Spokane. thns hit Highway 195 to Lewiston, Idaho. From there on to Oregon and Nevada, where she looked over the Biggest Little City in the World — Reno. From there she came to Lake Tahoe for her first look at these sky blue waters and she found them very beautiful and inviting after all the long, hard, dry roads she had traveled in the past weeks.

On Tuesday night she was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mayfield of Tahoe City and left on Wednesday for Los Angeles. via Tioga Pass and Yosemite Valley. She planned to reach home around September 15.

So fond of pedaling has Miss Gall become that she is considering joining several friends from southern California who are planning a bicycle tour of France leaving around February 1. She may consider a tour of South America after her European tour is completed. And then again she just may go back up north to Spokane, Wash., where a gold wedding band is awaiting her.

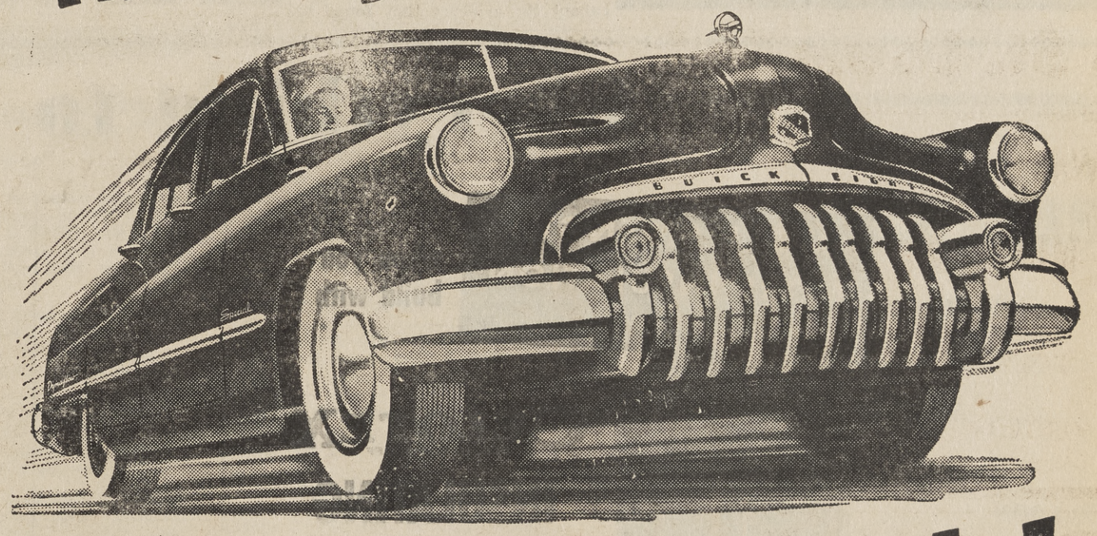
Thinking of the Long Pull?



Better Buy Buick!

IF that car of yours has put its best days behind it, there's no time like right now to think about starting out afresh with a taut, new, up-to-the-minute motorcar with all its mileage still in it.

And there's no better place in the world to start than with the beauty pictured here, for a variety of reasons.

For one thing, this Buick SPECIAL is a quick-stepping Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight that's priced lower than some sixes.

For another, it's built with typical Buick ruggedness through and through — a husky that can take a lot of years without crying "Uncle!"

Then, too—this high-styled beauty is proving to be one of the most economical Buicks ever built—easy on gas, easy on upkeep, easy on you in its soft, floating, light-handling comfort.

It even comes with Dynaflow Drive* if you like—and Dynaflow means that you will never have to service or replace a friction clutch, and that rear-end or transmission servicing—even engine upkeep—are cut to a minimum.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Of course, you can't see all of this in the brief span of a trial drive.

But you can experience the good solid feel of Buick strength beneath you. You can satisfy yourself on the lightness of the controls, the utter smoothness of Dynaflow, the quick surge of Buick's Fireball power.

All such things will tell you that this is a car you'll be glad to live with for a long time to come—and you need only to ask your Buick dealer for a demonstration to see precisely what we mean.

Why not call on him soon to talk about signing up?

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR, ABC Network, every Monday evening.

Summit Scene

by FRAN COUILLARD

We may be wrong in the assumption that Labor Day was the day designed to honor the laboring man and give him an extra day of rest as a reward for his toiling but to those operators in this area who run resorts and ski lifts and things and regretfully place Labor Day as "the end of the season", that three day period of rest becomes a long period of endless toil. If you don't believe us, ask Harold and Gloria Steen of the Kingvale Snotel. We place these folks at the head of the list because this is their first season and they have the newest establishment in the Donner area. Quite discouraged some time ago, but ceaselessly working to improve their establishment, they have pulled their business to the front and one finds himself waiting in line for a stool in the recently opened coffee shop. The circles 'neath their eyes come from long hours on the job, but they state that theirs will be one place open to feed the hunter as he searches for a place before sun up to get a good hot breakfast, so they still plan long hours. The Pine Bough goes to those youngsters and we are happy tney are young for it takes youth to execute the program they have set for themselves.

Not alone in laboring are they. The intense valley heat of the past week which reduced State Fair attendance over the holiday period, sent thousands to the mountains. Dormintories used only in the winter months, had to be quickly assembled to take care of the overflow and while operators anticipated the holiday rush to a certain extent, every one found himself in the saddle as his heavily taxed crew freely prespired, worked overtime and still couldn't make a dent in their work. Labor Day? I'll say. Best ever, say the operators.

Enthusiastic visitors to the area this past week end enthralled us for a few hours in the Soda Springs Hotel lobby. Mr. and Mrs. William Paden and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wiley with daughter, Carolyn. Paden, in case you aren't a student of Californiana, not only holds the position of superintendent of schools in Alameda County but is half of that illustrious and adventurous couple who have followed the old Emigrant Trail from Independence, Mo., to its ending in California. Not only are they authorities on same but they can imbue the innocent bystander with their enthusiasm to the extent that following the Trail becomes a heady wish. Mrs. Paden is the author of "Wake of the Prairie Schooner," co-autohr of "Rushing for Gold" and other works on California. This couple started their "project" in Independence in 1934 and 16 years of research have gone into their work thus far. Wiley is with the state division of beaches and parks. He states that the job of finding lost portions of the California Trail was handed to hiu because no one else wanted the job. To say that he is doing a good job can be verified by the fact that his three-day Labor Day holiday was spent on a horse's back, together with Paden, as they found fresh evidence of the old trail this past week end. Wiley returns this week with surveyors from his department to complete the job and make it official. Time is the element in this last bit of work for Wiley estimates that but half a mile can be covered in a day and the work on this end of the 60 mile stretch must be completed before snow flies. Wiley is going to keep us informed as to the progress and we, in turn, shall report to you. We'll tell you about the evidence they found of the "rollers" that are mentioned in historical writings of California—rollers that were used in hoisting the trail blazers up a cliff 200 feet to bring them to the place where they could view Emigrant Meadows. This pass the folks have named Greenwood Pass after Caleb Greenwood, whom all of the party reverence and admire. Greenwood, they say, was the first man to open the Cold Stream Pass. Jim Sherritt also sat in on this historical conclave and was commended for his persistence in securing the name of Judah for one of our high mountains.

Donner Summit Lodge, Beacon Hill Lodge with its swimming pool, Ice Lakes, Soda Springs Hotel, Rainbow, Steen's Motel, Christmas Inn — all reported full houses. Margot and Ernie Nordstrum stated that their place was crowded with bay area ski club and folk dancing groups for the whole week preceding the Labor Day holiday. We hear of the Alpineers throwing a big wing ding down in the Hole relow Norden as a portion of the celebration which concerns the opening of their new lodge. McIntosh (the Suisun-Fairfield Airbase boys who have the old McClellan Field lodge) and the Vikings also helped in the celebration. The Sierra Club parking lot was jammed with some kind of federated hiking bunch's convention. w

Speaking of Margot and Ernie Nordstrom brings to mind that their seasonal license expires the end of the month and as said day falls on a Saturday night, Margot and Ernie are putting on one of their famous smorgasbord entiicers to bid adieu to their place until New Years. Saturday, September 30, is the date. If you go in to Ski Hi, take a look at the row of steins on the back bar that belong to members of the Alpineers club. Cute and colorful, an old idea revived.

Speaking of smorgasbords, reminds us that last week end was the official ending of the Donner Summit Lodge smorgasbord. Speaking of the lodge, reminds us that Bud and Betty Horak are building on an addition to their little mountain cabin. When it is completed, this new addition, it won't be classified as a little mountain cabin any more for with the addition of a new daughter in the Horak family, new quarters had to be added so while they were at it, they have put on a new kitchen, sun porch and master bedroom.

We bid Paul and Edna Maynard of the Donner Ski Ranch adieu for Paul has been called back into the service and with 15 years behind him, we imagine he'll stay in now until he has put in his "hitch". Right now Bob and Claire Blackford are residing in the delightful ski ranch apartment and we hear that Milt Avila will take over the ski hill this coming winter.

Milt Hogle announces that the aerial chair ride on the Beacon Hill is drawing a great many sightseers and we like the music that is broadcast from that hill each morning which announces that the tow is running. Walter Jansen, head of the Soda Springs Ski Corporation, district governor of Rotary and prominent Lincoln citizen, who was thrown from the platform of the double chair lift recently as he was hit by a moving chair, is reported doing nicely in a Sacramento hospital. However, it will be a matter of months before Walt is up and around again.

With schools in the valley opening shortly, the various colonies around the Donner area close their eyes as they close their shutters for the approaching winter. Kingvale, the Cedars, portions of the Soda Springs subdivision, all begin to take on the bleak look that means between seasons. The operators in the area begin to breathe deeply and think about getting away from the busy summer behind them as they prepare for a little vacation before getting their places in order for winter. Bud Horak and Tony Donadio, with new cars, won't find the going too tough. Elmo Moriano has helpers now in the persons of Sis and Bud Leando, who have joined forces with him in the operation of his large establishment, so a little vacation won't do Elmo any harm either, now that he knows his place will be operated by competent hands.

So, like Tosca, we sing goodby to summer and still hope for a good handful of hot weather that will keep us in the minds of the valley and bay folk who have given us such a good one.

U. S MARINES HAUNT OLD TRAILS IN KOREA—When the First Marine Division entered combat near Pusan it marked the fifth time in 80 years that the Leathernecks have landed on Korea for the protection of American interests.

Their first landing was on May 21, 1871. The American minister to China had opened negotiations to permit United States sailors shipwrecked on Korean shores to receive sanctuary and help from the Koreans. During the negotiation a survey party under direction of Admiral John Rodgers U. S. N., then commanding the Asiatic squadron, was attacked by the native garrison of the Salee river forts and citadel (Seoul).

Admiral Rodgers demanded an explanation and gave the Koreans 10 days in which to reply. Receiving no answer, he put a force of Marines and sailors ashore on June 10 and captured the citadel. The Marines killed 250 Koreans. One Marine was killed and one was wounded.

This early amphibious landing by the Marines is graphically depicted in a painting by John Clymer, a New York artist. The canvas hangs in the headquarters of General Clifton N. Cates, commandant of the Marine Corps. Clymer's work which so faithfully depicts the uniforms and armament of the Marines of 80 years ago is reproduced above. Superimposed is a photograph of present-day Marine fighters. Note the camouflaged helmet.

Marines were landed to protect the American legation in Korea in 1888 and again in 1894.

Duck Shot 2500 Miles Away 18 Years Later

Eighteen years later and 2500 miles away, a duck banded by a member of the Newman Gun Club has been reported as part of an Alaska hunter's bag.

In 1933, Egbert R. Jones of Ceres banded a male pintail at the Alameda County hunting club. John V. Struck of Ugashik, Alaska, shot the duck near his home late last year.

Metal bands are placed on the legs of waterfowl by the California division of fish and game, the U. S. fish and wildlife service and cooperating sportsmen's groups. Returned bands are important in studying bird migrations, life spans and other biological factors.

"Good luck, Mr. Nixon!"

The great, great granddaughter of General Mariano Vallejo, first governor of California, pins a good luck charm on her favorite candidate.

Youngest among the "Women for Nixon" boosters, at a recent overflow meeting in San Francisco, attended by prominent women from many Northern California counties, was Miss Tica Francisca Vallejo McGettigan, 2nd., aged 9, of 2722 Baker street, San Francisco. Bearer of an illustrious name and a charming smile, the great, great granddaughter of California's first governor takes an active interest in state and national affairs. Above she is shown pinning one of her favorite good luck charms on her favorite candidate for the U. S. Senate, Representative Richard M. Nixon.

Tahoe City Rotary Has Varied Program

HOMEWOOD— The regular meeting of the Tahoe City Rotary Club was held Tuesday at Homewood Resort on the terrace overlooking Lake Tahoe. Forty-five members and guests were in attendance, with President James Gowing presiding.

Denis Sach, program chairman, called upon members to contribute to the program. The program was begun when Everett Griffith, Woodland Rotarian, told of his trip to Mexico last winter. Upon arriving at Mexico City, he attended the Mexico City Rotary Club, consisting of 250 members, and told of the warm welcome he received. The south of the border Rotarians take the day off from business when attending their Rotary meetings. The program consisted of six speakers, a seven piece orchestra, guest singers and movie stars.

Mrs. Lou Boyce, talented pianist, entertained with selections from South Pacific.

Clarence Beavers, local forest ranger and newly elected district chairman of the Boy Scouts, asked the support of the Rotary Clubs to help in the continuance of this fine organization which helps in training which is valuable to the boys who are the future leaders and citizens of America. Beaver introduced Del Rabf, Scouting field executive of the Tahoe Area Council. Raby outlined the district formations, presenting his talk with an illustrative chart.

Bishop Noel Porter expressed the club's appreciation for the fine programs given the Tahoe City Rotary. Bishop Porter spends three months each year at the Lake Tahoe Outdoor Chapel near Tahoe City and every year at Christmas looks forward to coming back to Lake Tahoe.

No meeting will be held here next Tuesday but there will be a tri-club meeting at Tahoe Inn, Tahoe City, Monday at 7 p.m. including Truckee, Tahoe City and Brockway Rotarians and their guests.

The next meeting at Homewood Resort, September 19, will have as guest speaker Harmon Hosier, of the U.S. immigration service.

Tarzan

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

TARZAN FOUND THE CRAZED GORILLA QUENCHING HIS THIRST AT A WATERHOLE.

BEFORE HE COULD FIRE, HOWEVER, THE SOUND OF CRACKING TIMBER MADE HIM AND THE GORILLA LOOK UP.

WITH IT BUTO CAME CHARGING THROUGH THE UNDERBRUSH, SEEKING THE WATER TO SOOTHE HIS ACHING BODY.

FURIOUS AT THIS INTRUSION, THE CRAZED BOLGANI SHOWED BRAVADO UNNATURAL FOR HIM IN FRONT OF THE POWERFUL RHINO AND DECIDED TO ATTACK!

THE RHINO TOOK THE CHALLENGE. SNORTING, HE LUMBERED HEADLONG AT HIS HAIRY ANTAGONIST!

BOB LUBBERS 9/10

THE CRUSHING WEIGHT OF THE RHINO PROVED TOO MUCH FOR BOLGANI. THE SHATTERING IMPACT ALL BUT DROWNED OUT THE PIERCING SCREAM OF THE GORILLA!
